Man Follows Methods of Miss Davidson-Horse Kills.

Hurls Himself Under August Belmont's Colt.

Ascot, Eng., June 19 .- Fired by the recent example of Miss Emily Wilding Davidson, during the race for the derby a male suffragist today committed suicide by flinging himself in front of August Belmont's 4-year-old Tracery. during the race for the valuable Ascot gold cup. His act deprived the American sportsman of a good chance of capturing the trophy.

Waving a flag of the suffragette colors, in one hand and brandishing a revolver in the other, the milisuffragist sprang over the rails just as the field of eight horses, with the American colt Tracery leading, were nearing the stretch for the run home. With a yell of "stop," he bounded in front of the horses. Tracery col-lided with him and felled him before the jockey, A. Whalley, had time to

Later it developed the man was not dead. He was taken to the hospital where an operation was performed. The surgeon announced that the man's condition was hopeless. He was not identified.

According to a local agency a second man was concerned in the affair. He is said to have seized the revolver when the injured man dropped it and to have pointed it at the crowd, some of whom charged him but he succeeded in escaping.

Tracery is a son of the famous Eng-lish stallion, Rocksand, for which Mr. Belmont paid $125,000.

RAISED THE EMBARGO.

Attorney General Dawson Says Nev Paving Bill No Good,

Attorney General John S. Dawso has raised the embargo on paving in cities of the second class and in an opinion has declared that the Taylor of Garnett came forward with He was responsible for he language which limstriking out the language which limited the liability of abutting property owners to the balance of the cost, The clerk in charge of the bill corrected it to comply with the Bowman amendment but not to correspond with the Paulen amendment and in that defective manner, it went back to the house, which ratified the Bow-man amendment only. Now, Dawson holds that under decisions of the supreme court, the legislative journals show clearly, conclusively and beyond ail doubt that the bill as enrolled and printed did not pass and is void.

"But," said the attorney general, "if conclusions are wrong, there is matters which supersedes that Riddle bill, which was published in the official state paper March 19, is an earlier and prior act; so the cities may should be a published to the department of agriculture. EDITOR ROOSEVELT.

Outlook Officers Quit-Start New Publication-Teddy at Head.

New York, June 19.-William B. Howland, vice president and publisher of the Outlook; Karl V. S. Howland, treasurer. and Harold J. Howland, a department head, have resigned from the publication and will enter another publishing busiiess. It is reported that the Howlands will soon begin the publication of a new periodical with Theodore Roosevelt as its periodical with Theodore Rooseveit as its editor, the former president to take charge as soon as his present contract with the Outlook expires. The Howlands moved out of the Outlook offices in the Charities building several days ago.

The following statement was made by Lawrence F. Abbott, president of the Outlook company.

"Mr. William B. Howland resigned last week as vice president of the Outlook company in order that he might carry out some periodical publishing plans which he has had in mind for a long time, plans which the Outl which the Outlook company did not desire which the Outlook company did not desire to undertake itself.

"Mr. Howland's two sons, K. V. S. Howland and Harold J. Howland, resigned at the same time. The latter will probably be associated with his father in his new periodical enterprise. The statement that the resignation was due to any disagreement regarding Mr. Boosevelt is erroneous. The resignation was the reresult of a fundamental difference of opinion regarding, not the editorials but the publishing policy, of the Outlook company.

"Mr. Frank C. Hoyt, for many years advertising manager of the Outlook, has been elected treasurer in Mr. K. V. S. Howland's place, and Mr. Travers D. Carman, for many years in the business department of the Outlook, has been appointed advertising manager."

To work out a general plan for alding Kansas farmers in the harvesting and marketing of crops, the agricultural com-mittee of the Kansas State Bankers' asso-ciation, will meet in Topeka Friday, June in mittee of the Kansas State Bankers' association, will meet in Topeka Friday, June 2. The meeting was called today by former Governor W. J. Balley of Atchison, who is chairman of the committee. The plan for aiding Kansas farmers was advanced several weeks ago by Bank Commissioner Charles M. Sawyer at the state wide meeting of the association in Hutchinson. He urged the adoption by the association of a plan for the promotion of agricultural interests and financial aid for farmers during crop gathering time that would enable them to hold their crops for best possible prices. These methods, of course, would need to be worked out according to conditions in various localities. To accomplish this purpose, Sawyer also urged a closer organization of the state and national bankers and suggested that county organization be made in the larger counties of the state and that agricultural and industrial conditions be discussed and promoted by the men at the heads of the banking institutions.

Many bankers have endorsed the Sawyer Many bankers have endorsed the cawyon plan for boosting the Kansas farming industry and Chairman Bulley of the agricultural committee, is arranging details for the new work. He has asked the committee to come to Topeka June Z and it is

FINE STREET SPEAKERS

Heavy Penalties to Prevent Labor Excitement.

Kansas City, June 18.—Rev. Thomas E. Green, pastor of the Bethany Congregational church, St. Louis, and S. B. Davison and Thomas R. Suilivan, of Kansas City, members of the Socialist party, were fined $500 each in municipal court here today on charges of blockading the street while speaking at a curb meeting. The police had ordered that no street meeting which might incite the labor element to violence be held during the progress of local labor troubles between contractors and building laborers. Three men were given similar fines last week for disobeying the same order.
